

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

A. Conclusion

After completing the discussion on the data analysis, the researcher comes to the final step of this thesis. In this chapter the researcher concludes that :

The contain of Christina Georgina Rossetti's poem is denotative and connotative meaning. Denotative word is real word. Choosing of word (diction) in Christina G Rossetti's poem many used denotative meaning. Connotative meaning is other meaning beside denotative meaning. Christina G Rossetti used a few of connotative meaning, although this Christina G Rossetti poems have meaningful poem.

Christina G Rossetti make poem with easy language but have a deep meaning. The result showed that Christina G rossetti's poem had was 108 denotative meanings and connotative meaning,that consist of 59 denotative meaning and 49 connotative meaning. Base on previous chapter the researcher had found the denotative and connotative meaning according to the theory by Brinton And Yule the researcher could concluded in Christina Georgina Rossetti's poem using word with denotative meaning than connotative meaning.

B. Recommendation

Based on the result of this research, some suggestion are enclosed as follows :

a. For Teacher

For the language teachers are explain about meaning especially about denotative and connotative meaning.

b. For student

For all of student are study and know about denotative and connotative meaning

c. For readers

The readers in general are sugested to learn about connotative and denotative meaning in order that know meaning of poem.

